- Using social media in an official capacity

You must be authorised by the Oasis Otters Swimming Club Committee before engaging in social media as a representative of Oasis Otters Swimming Club.

To become authorised to represent Oasis Otters Swimming Club in an official capacity, you must have been appointed by the Committee as the Social Media Officer, to handle the social media aspects for the Club.

As a part of Oasis Otters Swimming Club's community, you are an extension of the Oasis Otters Swimming Club brand.

As such, the boundaries between when you are representing yourself and when you are representing Oasis Otters Swimming Club can often be blurred. This becomes even more of an issue as you increase your profile or position within Oasis Otters Swimming Club. Therefore it is important that you represent both yourself and Oasis Otters Swimming Club appropriately online at all times.

GUIDELINES

You must adhere to the following guidelines when using social media related to Oasis Otters Swimming Club or its members, services, competitions, events, sponsors, members or reputation.

- Use common sense

Whenever you are unsure as to whether or not the content you wish to share is appropriate, seek advice from others before doing so or refrain from sharing the content to be on the safe side.

When using social media, the lines between public and private, personal and professional, may be blurred. Remember, as a member, you are an ambassador for Oasis Otters Swimming Club.

- Protecting your privacy

Be smart about protecting yourself and your privacy.

When posting content online there is potential for that content to become publicly available through a variety of means, even if it was intended to be shared privately. Therefore, you should refrain from posting any content online that you would not be happy for anyone to see, even if you feel confident that a particular individual would never see it.

Where possible, privacy settings on social media platforms should be set to limit access. You should also be cautious about disclosing your personal details.

- Honesty

Your honesty—or dishonesty—may be quickly noticed in the social media environment. Do not say anything that is dishonest, untrue or misleading. If you are unsure, check the source and the facts before uploading or posting anything. Oasis Otters Swimming Club recommends erring on the side of caution – if in doubt, do not post or upload.

Do not post anonymously, using pseudonyms or false screen names. Be transparent and honest. Use your real name, be clear about who you are and identify any affiliations you have.

If you have a vested interest in something you are discussing, point it out. If you make an endorsement or recommendation about something you are affiliated with, or have a close relationship with, you must disclose that affiliation.

The web is not anonymous. You should assume that all information posted online can be traced back to you. You are accountable for your actions both on and offline, including the information you post via your personal social media accounts.

- Use of disclaimers

Wherever practical, include a prominent disclaimer stating who you work for or are affiliated with (e.g. member of Oasis Otters Swimming Club) and that anything you publish is your personal opinion and that you are not speaking officially. This is good practice and is encouraged, but don't count on it to avoid trouble -- it may not have legal effect.

- Reasonable use

If you are an employee of Oasis Otters Swimming Club, you must ensure that your personal use of social media does not interfere with your work commitments or productivity.

- Respect confidentiality and sensitivity

When using social media, you must maintain the privacy of Oasis Otters Swimming Club's confidential information. This includes information that is not publicly accessible, widely known, or not expected to be shared outside of Oasis Otters Swimming Club.

Remember, if you are online, you are on the record—much of the content posted online is public and searchable.

Confidential information includes things such as details about litigation, unreleased competition information and unpublished details e.g. team, personal and financial information.

When using social media you should be considerate to others and should not post information when you have been asked not to, or where consent has not been sought and given. You must also remove information about another person if that person asks you to do so.

Permission should always be sought if the use or publication of information is not incidental, but directly related to an individual. This is particularly relevant to publishing any information regarding minors. In such circumstances, parental or guardian consent is mandatory.

- Gaining permission when publishing a person's identifiable image

You must obtain express permission from an individual to use a direct, clearly identifiable image of that person.

You should also refrain from posting any information or photos of a sensitive nature. This could include accidents, incidents or controversial behaviour.

In every instance, you need to have consent of the owner of copyright in the image.

- Complying with applicable laws

- Abiding by copyright laws

It is critical that you comply with the laws governing copyright in relation to material owned by others and Oasis Otters Swimming Club's own copyrights and brands.

You should never quote or use more than short excerpts of someone else's work, and you should always attribute such work to the original author/source. It is good practice to link to others' work rather than reproduce it.

- Discrimination, sexual harassment and bullying

The public in general, and Oasis Otters Swimming Club's employees and members, reflect a diverse set of customs, values and points of view.

You must not post any material that is offensive, harassing, discriminatory, embarrassing, intimidating, sexually explicit, bullying, hateful, racist, sexist or otherwise inappropriate.

When using social media you may also be bound by Oasis Otters Swimming Club's values and Harassment Policy and Framework that also covers Anti-Discrimination and Bullying.

- Avoiding controversial issues

Within the scope of your authorisation by Oasis Otters Swimming Club, if you see misrepresentations made about Oasis Otters Swimming Club in the media, you may point that out to the relevant authority in the Oasis Otters Swimming Club Committee. Always do so with respect and with the facts. If you speak about others, make sure what you say is based on fact and does not discredit or belittle that party.

- Dealing with mistakes

If you make an error while posting on social media, be up front about the mistake and address it quickly. If you choose to modify an earlier post, make it clear that you have done so. If someone accuses you of posting something improper (such as their copyrighted material or a defamatory comment about them), address it promptly and appropriately and if necessary, seek legal advice.

- Conscientious behaviour and awareness of the consequences

Keep in mind that what you write is your responsibility, and failure to abide by these guidelines could put your Oasis Otters Swimming Club membership at risk, as outlined in the "Policy Breach" section below.

You should always follow the terms and conditions for any third-party sites in which you participate.
